

Wednesday 16 October 2.00pm - 4.00pm

followed by the screening of a new film by William Barylo Polish Muslims

University of London, Senate House, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HU

www.enorb.eu

For more information, contact
Catriona Robertson: 07903 682 143
enorb@enorb.eu

ENORB UK is multi-disciplinary: a mix of grassroots communities & practitioners, legal professionals, the academy, policy-makers & advisors and religion/belief organisations which are interested in mutual understanding and common action between religious and non-religious groups.

It enables

- the exchange of knowledge and ideas in the field of religion & belief
- the sharing of information about educational opportunities, events, publications, research and exchange visits and
- joint activities, particularly in solidarity with other European groups.

ENORB UK is a link to European religion & belief groups and practitioners and to EU institutions.

Helle Abelvik-Lawson, Human Rights Project Officer

Human Rights Consortium - a brief introduction

Paul Weller, Professor of Inter-Religious Relations, University of Derby

Religion and belief, discrimination and equality: a decade of change?
Towards a more equitable religion and belief landscape.

Dr David Perfect, Equality & Human Rights Commission

EHRC/Goldsmiths dialogue events on religion or belief.

Respondents: British Humanist Association and The Cordoba Foundation.

Workshops: what are the implications of this research for the work of grassroots communities, policy makers & public servants, equalities professionals and religion and belief organisations?

“Polish Muslims” A newly released film, introduced by director William Barylo.

This ENORB UK event is free of charge & open to those interested in mutual understanding and common action between religious and non-religious groups.

If you plan to attend, please register by emailing enorb@enorb.eu by 15 October.