

Inter Faith Week 2013

17–23 November

An opportunity to:

- Strengthen good inter faith relations at all levels
- Increase awareness of the different and distinct faith communities in the UK, celebrating and building on the contribution which their members make to their neighbourhoods and to wider society
- Increase understanding between people of religious and non-religious beliefs

Some ways of marking the Week

- Faith trails, inter faith walks, faith community open door days – visit somewhere you've never been before
- Inter faith community action such as collections for food banks and environmental projects
- Arts and cultural events
- Learning about other people's beliefs
- Joint Inter Faith Week and Mitzvah Day event
- Inter faith football, netball, bowling...
- Inter Faith Week features in newspapers and local radio
- 'Speed faithing' – 2 minutes to explain your faith or non-religious belief
- Exchange visits between places of worship or schools
- Dialogues between people of different religious and non-religious beliefs
- Multi faith food fairs and meals – however you do it, everyone likes to eat
- Photography, art and educational exhibitions
- Talks, workshops and discussions
- Dialogue skills training events

Join the many faith, belief and inter faith bodies, community organisations, local authorities, emergency services, SACREs, schools, colleges, universities, chaplaincies, businesses and others who will be taking part this year.
