

Making my wishes known

Come along to a FREE workshop to help YOU think about what YOU would want to happen to YOU in a care and treatment crisis

Tuesday 25 April, 9.30am to 3pm
We are 336, 336 Brixton Road, SW9 7AA

The workshop, with lunch provided, is open to anyone who has an interest in advance care planning, will give you the opportunity to:

- Find out why it is important to record your preferences around the care and treatment you receive in a crisis.
- Listen to presentations from legal experts and ask questions on how to set up a Lasting Power of Attorney and who can help you to do this.
- Find out about writing your own Advanced Statement and how to ensure others are aware of this.
- Join others in having a go at writing your own Advanced Statement.
